The Business

Printspot is a print and graphic design company specialising in digital and litho printing. They cater for both commercial and domestic customers in a wide variety of print and design work.

The Background

Printspot was established in January 2010 by Kevin Shearer who has worked in the print industry for over 30 years.

Kevin's printing career started in 1979 when he worked for a local newspaper. He learnt the basics at the paper before moving on to work at a local printing firm where stayed for 23 years. This experience has afforded Kevin a vast knowledge of the industry and he now has extensive experience in all aspects of print and design as well the ability to adapt and keep up with the constant changes and demands of the trade.

The Service

As a small streamlined printing company PrintSpot aims to provide excellent quality printing and design coupled with outstanding customer service.

Printspot cover a wide spectrum of print work, the most common being Business and Personal Stationery, NCR Sets, Leaflets, Booklets, Greetings Cards and Posters. Printspot also provide large format art prints and signage for any purpose.
